

Erin Keenan Joins the Office of Attorney Michael Robbins With a Focus on Customer Service

Law firm of Crowley & Cummings Adds Ms. Keenan as its Newest Paralegal

Westborough, MA (November 3, 2020) – As part of his commitment to customer service, and in light of recent explosive growth in the Real Estate sector, Attorney Michael Robbins of Crowley & Cummings LLC, has added Erin Keenan to his Westborough-based office team. Ms. Keenan, who has a strong background in the real estate industry, will join Attorney Robbins in guiding buyers and sellers through every part of the transaction, and providing added value as they navigate the process.

Ms. Keenan joins the team from a local mortgage company, where she handled various aspects of the loan process – from opening to post-close. She has extensive experience building relationships with her clients and is adept at making them feel both valued and at ease. Erin's previous background as a teacher and coach have also allowed her to hone her skills of creating rapport and demystifying new or unfamiliar processes.

Erin understands the intricacies of the home buying process and she will assist Attorney Robbins with guiding clients through each aspect of their purchase or sale.

"I believe that purchasing real estate is more than a transaction – it is a key milestone that can have long-term impact on the buyers' financial future. Because she shares my commitment to adding value in this important process, Erin is a great addition to our team," said Attorney Michael A.B. Robbins. "She's got a proven track record of supporting customers and a deep knowledge of the industry. I look forward to working with her to deliver a premium experience to our clients."
